

PATIENT RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

The patient (or when appropriate the patient's representative, as allowed under State law) has the right to:

- Treatment regardless of race, color, national origin, language, religion, sex, sexual orientation, ethnicity, age, or disability.
- Considerate and respectful care which includes consideration of the psychosocial, spiritual and cultural variables that influence the perceptions of illness.
- Expect that, within its capacity and policies, Riverview Health will make a reasonable response to the request of a patient for appropriate and medically indicated care and services.
- Receive assistance if they have a disability, such as a sign-language interpreter, large print braille, or other similar services, free of charge and in a timely manner.
 - To request these accommodations or services, contact a staff member or the 1557 Coordinator: Madeline Larsen at 317-776-7140.
- Have a family member (or representative of his/her choice) and personal physician notified promptly of his/her admission to the hospital.
- Be informed, whenever possible, of Patient Rights in advance of Riverview Health furnishing or discontinuing patient care.
- Know the reasons for any proposed change in the professional staff responsible for his/her care.
- Participate in the development and implementation of his/her plan of care including, but not limited to, the inpatient treatment/care plan, outpatient treatment/care plan, discharge plan and pain management plan.
- Make informed decisions regarding his/her care.
- Be informed of his/her health status, be involved in care planning and treatment, be able to request or refuse treatment to the extent permitted by law, and to be informed of the medical consequences of such refusal. This right will not be construed as a mechanism to demand the provision of treatment or services deemed medically unnecessary or inappropriate.
- Be informed about the outcomes of care including unanticipated outcomes that differ significantly from the anticipated outcome.
- Consult with a specialist, at his/her own request and expense.
- Have pain treated as effectively as possible within the hospital's capacity.
- Pastoral and other spiritual services.
- Formulate advance directives, including a psychiatric advance directive, to the extent permitted by law and to have Riverview Health staff and practitioners who provide care at Riverview Health comply with the directives.
- Personal privacy.
- Confidentiality of his/her clinical records except in cases, including, but not limited to, suspected abuse and public health hazards, when reporting is permitted or required by law.
- Access information contained in his/her clinical records within a reasonable time frame except when restricted by law.
- Receive care in a safe setting.
- Be free from physical or mental abuse, harassment, corporal punishment and all other forms of abuse.
- Be free from restraints or seclusion of any form that are not medically necessary or are used as a means of coercion, discipline, convenience or retaliation by staff.

- Participate in the development of your treatment plan.
- Attend therapy sessions and participate in activities prescribed by your care provider.
- Be considerate of the rights of other patients.

COMPLAINTS OR GRIEVANCES

Our goal is to deliver excellent healthcare to our patients, and we believe that all complaints or grievances are an opportunity to improve patient care. To discuss concerns about any aspect of your care, treatment or stay while in the hospital, you are encouraged to speak to the Department Manager or Nursing Supervisor, or call the Organizational Improvement Department at 317.776.7230, or contact Riverview's designated Section 1557 Coordinator at 317-776-7140 or via email at: organizationalimprovement@riverview.org. In addition to, or instead of contacting a Riverview Health representative, you may also contact the Indiana State Department of Health in writing at 2 North Meridian Street, Indianapolis, IN 46204 or call toll-free at 800.382-9480. If you are a Medicare beneficiary, you have the right to request Riverview Health to refer your concern to the Quality Improvement Organization.
